PLAYGROUND AT NEW SCHOOL.

Children in Portsmouth Institution Have Portsmouth, Va., February 8.—Owing to an appropriation from the City Council for the purchase of a new playground, the children of the new school building on the corner of Fifth and Jefferson Streets are enjoying an equipment of up-to-date apparatus that is equalled by none in the city.

The new apparatus consists of a concrete foundation, supporting rings, ladders, slides, and other things, and the children are enjoying themselves very much. The playground is now open for the use of the children, and the school is now in session. The playground is a very fine one, and the children are very happy. The school is a very fine one, and the children are very happy. The playground is a very fine one, and the children are very happy. The school is a very fine one, and the children are very happy.

BROKER FAILED TO GET LICENSE

Meaken Arrested for Carrying on Business Without Paying Fee.

G. F. V. Meaken, who claims to have held a commission as captain in the British army, was arrested yesterday by Detective-Sergeants Wiley and Kel-lam on the charge of carrying on a brokerage business without a license.
He was bailed for his appearance in Police Court to-morrow morning, $300 bond being furnished by L. W. Atkinson.

According to Captain of Detectives McMahon, Meaken has been selling shares of stock in the Burson Platinum Gold and Silver Company, of Yuma, Ariz.

M. L. Wildhorse told Captain McMahon that he had recently inherited some money from a relative in England, and had bought $2,000 worth of stock from Meaken, giving him a check for $200, and a draft for the remainder. Meaken, it is alleged, urged Wildhorse to have the draft cashed, and the latter cabled to England for $1,000 pounds sterling.
Just what kind of a business the Arizona corporation has been carrying on in Richmond is now the object of the investigation by the police.

Meaken has before had dealings with the police. The last time he came in for notoriety was when he was mysteriously shot, while living in Clay Street. He told the police he had accidentally wounded himself, but nevertheless the affair was the subject of an investigation, though it produced no results. For a long while Meaken was in a critical position at the City Hospital.

ROWE IS AGAIN AT HOME.

Shows Effects of His Suffering—Williams Soon Will Be Tried.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Benjamin S. Rowe, Va., February 8.—Benjamin S. Rowe, who has been dangerously ill in a hospital at Norfolk since he was stabbed by Emmett Williams, at Brown's Wharf, last December, has so far recovered as to be able to be removed to his home.

A throng of friends at Severn Wharf, in lower Gloucester, awaited the Old Dominion steamer for the arrival of Mr. Rowe. With assistance he was placed in the family carriage, which had been taken upon the wharf for his convenience. The great physical suffering which Mr. Rowe has lately undergone, rendered this once absented young man almost a physical wreck.

In the prosecution of the case against Emmett Williams and his accomplice, Frank Shackelford, an early court trial is to be arranged. Great interest and sympathy is expressed for these representative families. At one time it was rumored that a compromise would be effected. This is emphatically now denied, and the law will take its usual action. In the tragedy a pathetic incident has occurred, for young Williams has lost by death his wife and child, since the stabbing.

Ball was furnished for the release of Emmett Williams and also for Frank Shackelford at the time of the tragedy.

COURT TO CONVENE

Civil Docket Is Large—Try Negro Boy for Killing Rival.

With Judge Robert G. Southall presiding, the winter term of the Richmond Circuit Court will convene tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Chesterfield Courthouse. The docket is said to be unusually large, and will contain several important and interesting civil suits.

A grand jury has been summoned to investigate several criminal matters.
The most important case to be presented is that of young Watt Davis, colored, charged with shooting and fatally wounding Peola Woodbridge, a negro boy. The negroes were paying attention to the same girl at the time the affray happened. Davis claims that the shooting was accidental, and has a number of witnesses summoned to substantiate his contention. He bears an excellent reputation, and a number of white neighbors went on his bond.

LEAVES QUESTION OPEN

Judge Wells Evades Habitual Drunkard Definition—Farmer on Probation.

Rather than assume the responsibility of fixing the exact status of an habitual drunkard, Judge Ernest H.
Wells, of Hastings Court, Part II, yesterday evaded the issue by placing Frank Farmer under the care of a probation officer for one year. The man was convicted before Justice H.
A. Maurice, in Police Court, Part II, on a warrant charging him with being an habitual drunkard. He was sentenced to serve twelve months in jail.
An appeal was noted. In the meanwhile, Farmer was confined in the City Jail, and had served sixty-one days before his case came before the upper court.

Hale Is Dismissed.

Unable to prove fraudulent intent, the prosecution failed completely to make out a case against Sam Hale yesterday in Hastings Court, Part II, and without objection the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The case came from Police Court, Part II, on appeal. Hale was charged with ordering a load of coal sent to his home, for which he was to pay on delivery. The fuel was placed in the house by the driver without consulting Hale. Not having the money at hand he telephoned to the dealer that he would pay at the store. This he failed to do, and he was afterward arrested.
A State statute covers the offense, but makes fraudulent intent a necessary element.

To Form School League.

Parents with children attending the Oak Grove public school will meet this week, probably February 14, for the purpose of forming a school and civic league. The school is in need of a piano, and a number of prominent women will join the league and assist in securing one.

The Swansboro League will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the schoolhouse. Mrs. J. E. Norrell, the president, will preside. Among the speakers will be Superintendent William G. Owens and Dr. Douglas Freeman. The latter will take "Health" as his subject. Miss Addie Criffin will give a recitation and refreshments will be served by school girls.

Disorderly Negro Fined.

For disorderly conduct on a Hull Street car, James Carter, colored, was yesterday fined $10 and costs by Justice H. A. Maurice, in Police Court, Part II. He was accused of obnoxious on "Prayer" will be delivered this morning by Rev. F. Ernest Warren, rector of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church.

Personal Mention.

Miss Mary F. Pierce, of Ashland, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. T. Rucker.

Mrs. S. M. Pleasant is visiting Miss Ellis Mayo.

George Friend, who has been spending several months as the guest of relatives on the Southside, will leave tomorrow for his home in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carter and their son, David Walker, have returned from a visit to relatives in Baltimore.
